

CYNTHIA BURNETT TRAVEL SCHOLARSHIP

(Established in 2018 by Cynthia Burnett to foster learning of multiple European languages.)

1 Purpose

The purpose of the Scholarship is to encourage and assist meritorious students of European languages other than English at UQ to improve their language proficiency through an in-country experience.

2 Definitions

In these rules –

Scholarship means the Cynthia Burnett Travel Scholarship

Head means the Head, School of Languages and Cultures

Target Language means a European language other than English

3 Value and Award of Scholarship

- (1) The Senate may award a number of Scholarships each year, on the recommendation of the Head of School, after consultation with the donor.
- (2) The value of each Scholarship is $4,500.

4 Eligibility for Award

The Scholarship is open to students who -

- (a) are domestic students in accordance with The University's Fee Policy; and
- (b) have completed at least #8 in two Target Languages; and
- (c) do not hold another comparable scholarship; and
- (d) have not previously held the Scholarship; and
- (e) submit the application to the Head by the closing date for applications; and
- (f) have been accepted into the UQ Abroad Program at a host university in a country where one of their Target Languages is predominantly spoken.

5 Selection of Award

- (1) For the selection process, the Head of the School, must establish a selection committee comprising -
 - (a) the Head or nominee; and
 - (b) two other members of academic staff at the School of Languages and Cultures with committee members focusing on different languages as their primary area of teaching and/or research.
- (2) The Scholarship is awarded, at the discretion of the selection committee to the applicant showing greatest merit as demonstrated by –
 - (a) evidence of financial need; and
 - (b) academic achievement in their Target Languages; and
 - (c) a demonstrated commitment to achieving fluency in these languages; and
 - (d) a written explanation of how the scholarship will further their proficiency in a Target Language.
- (3) Preference will be given to (in order of preference):
 - (a) applicants who intend to study one of their Target Languages as part of their UQ Abroad Program;
 - (b) applicants who have completed more than #10 units in two Target Languages.

6 Conditions for Scholarship

- (1) The Scholarship is tenable for one year and will be paid upfront in one instalment, subject to the recipient –
 - (a) providing confirmation of acceptance at a host university; and
 - (b) providing a copy of the approved study plan letter from their Faculty; and
 - (c) providing evidence of an airline receipt; and
 - (d) not holding another scholarship that the Head deems similar.
- (2) If the recipient fails to commence the approved study abroad program within twelve months of being paid, the recipient will be expected to return the funds received to the Scholarship.
- (3) Within 1 month of returning to Australia the recipient must submit to the School of Languages and Cultures a 500 word statement describing –
 - (a) the impact of the study abroad program on his or her learning experience; and
 - (b) their plans for future study and application of their Target Languages.
