

Dear ISLE7 attendees,

This is the Second Circular for ISLE7. Conference planning is now in the final stages, so we appreciate you might have some questions for us - we will continue to send regular updates now that there are only six weeks to go.

Please read on for information about:

- 1) Registration
- 2) Consent form
- 3) Program
- 4) Talk Delivery
- 5) Technical set-up

This information is also all included in the first circular pdf attached.

1. Registration

Please remember that all attendees as well as at least one of the presenters of every talk must be an ISLE member - if you have not yet registered for the conference and joined ISLE, please do so as soon as possible. The link to both, becoming an ISLE member and registering for ISLE7 are available on the ISLE7 website (<https://languages-cultures.uq.edu.au/isle7>).

If you cannot attend and no longer want to register, please let us know as soon as possible via isle7@uq.edu.au.

2. Consent form (copyright statement)

This conference will be recorded and shared with other ISLE7 attendees. We ask that everyone attending (both online and onsite) to sign the consent form by 17 May 2023. You can use the consent form link included in this document or follow the link provided on the ISLE7 website (<https://languages-cultures.uq.edu.au/isle7>).

3. Program

Please find the (preliminary version of the) program attached as well as ready for download on the ISLE7 website (<https://languages-cultures.uq.edu.au/isle7>).

We kindly ask you, and workshop organizers in particular, to check if your talk is included and if all talks that are intended for a workshop have been allocated to that workshop.

Please remember that all times are Australian Eastern Standard Time (AEST) is 10 hours ahead of Coordinated Universal Time (UTC)!

4. Talk Delivery

Talks and presentations will be presented via the following delivery methods:

- Live / on site (this will be zoomed to online attendees)
- Present online via Zoom
- Submit recordings and they will be played (by the chair). We ask that presenters be available during your talk for the Q&A. If you do not want to present live (onsite or online), please send in recordings either directly or a download link to isle7@uq.edu.au by 17 May 2023 and with the following format as the title: last name of first author_full title of talk.

5. Technical set-up

We will use Zoom for individual sessions, talk delivery, and Q&As. We will use Slack for socializing, announcements, and for getting in touch with organizers (as a more immediate alternative to email).

Do get in touch if you have any queries or issues.

Very best wishes from Brisbane,
The ISLE7 organizing team
