

4TH CONFERENCE ON DISCOURSE, CULTURE & INTERACTION
(DCI-4)

December 5-6, 2024
The University of Queensland

Keynote speaker
Dr Wei-Lin Melody Chang
The University of Queensland

We are happy to announce the 4th Conference on Discourse, Culture & Interaction that provides a forum for researchers in the areas of Pragmatics, (Applied) Linguistics, Communication Studies, Cultural Studies among others to share their research findings. We particularly welcome submissions from early career researchers – including Honours, MA and PhD.

Abstracts are invited for papers on any topic relevant to discourse analysis, culture and interaction, including but not limited to:

- Social action in interaction;
- Identity construction;
- Multilingual speech communities;
- L2 studies/pragmatics;
- Intercultural/cross-cultural studies;
- Humour;
- Digital communication;
- (Im)politeness studies.

Abstract submission (conference presentation on December 5/6)

Abstracts (300-350 words, excluding references) need to be submitted via email (see below). In your abstract file please include: (1) title of the paper, (2) your full name, and (3) affiliation. All the abstracts will be anonymised prior to the peer-review process.

Data session proposals (on December 6)

On the second day of the conference, we will run a reading group meeting and a data session on the conference topics mentioned above. If you have a dataset you would like to explore in detail with the group, please submit your proposal (150-200 words, excluding a short data sample) via email. Your submission should include: (1) proposed topic, (2) short description of the data, (3) short data sample, (4) your full name, and (5) affiliation.

This conference is free of charge for presenters and attendees. The conference will be held in person.

Key dates:
