

“Changes in the Curriculum of Kim Jong Un’s Era and the Learning Experiences of Students”

To be presented by

Dr Hyo Sook Shin (University of North Korean Studies, South Korea)

Hosted by

Korean Studies Centre at the University of Queensland, Australia

DATE & TIME: Tuesday 9 April 2024

4:00 - 5:00 PM (Brisbane, Australia) / 3:00 - 4:00 PM (Seoul, South Korea)

ZOOM: <https://uqz.zoom.us/j/6990285444>

SPEAKER AND DISCUSSANT

- Speaker: Dr Hyo Sook Shin (University of North Korean Studies, South Korea)
- Discussant: Dr Isaac Lee (Co-Director, KSC, The University of Queensland, Australia)
- MC: Dr Min Jung Jee (The University of Queensland, Australia)

ABOUT THE SPEAKER

Dr. Hyo Sook Shin graduated from the department of education of Korea University and obtained a Ph.D. degree in North Korean education at the Graduate School of Korean Studies from the Academy of Korean Studies. She teaches students as part-time lecturer at Kookmin University and studies as a visiting researcher at the University of North Korean studies (UNKS). She served as a director of Educational Development Department for 13 years at the North Korean Refugees Foundation (Korean Hana Foundation), a public institution under the Ministry of Unification. Also, she worked as a researcher at the Korean Educational Development Institute (KEDI), a research institute specializing in educational policy. She has been carrying out research on subjects concerning state educational system in Russia and Central Asia; North Korea; education directed at North Korean refugees; unification education; Social Integration Education for North and South Koreans; and inclusive education.