ABOUT QKDTA - Ariehrang

The Korean Queensland Traditional Dance Association (QKDTA), also known as ARIHRANG, was founded in 2014 by individuals dedicated to preserving and sharing traditional Korean culture through dance. In 2019, QKDTA (ARIHRANG) became an official nonprofit organization, and is committed to preserving and promoting Korean traditional dance through regular practices and performances. QKDTA also conducts educational programs to promote Korean culture and actively participates in local festivals and multicultural events.

QKDTA's primary goals include upholding and promoting Korean traditional culture while fostering community cohesion among Koreans. Furthermore, QKDTA strives to enhance cultural exchange within Queensland's diverse multicultural society.
