R. Dwyer, I. Davis, e. emerald (Eds.) Narrative Research in Practice

Stories from the Field

- Provides an overview of the narrative research landscape, contextualising the rich and varied demonstrations of narrative research
- Encompasses narrative inquiry, ethnography, autoethnography, life history research, discourse studies, and phenomenology
- Each chapter concludes with a set of discussion exercises, supplemented by teaching resources

This book directly addresses the multiplicity and complexity of narrative research by illustrating a variety of avenues to pursuing and publishing research that falls under the umbrella of narrative work. The chapters are drawn from a wide range of disciplines including education, literary studies, cultural studies, music and clinical studies. Each chapter considers a particular methodological issue or approach, illustrating how it was addressed in the course of the research. Each of the chapters concludes with a set of discussion exercises and a further reading list. The book offers a valuable resource for established researchers seeking to expand their methodological and theoretical repertoire, and for graduate students and researchers new to narrative methods.
